

PARISH MAPS

England to America

Building a Sense of Place through the Work of Common Ground

Workshops & Panel Discussion

Panel Discussion: Public Art & Sense of Place

Sue Clifford, Co-Founder & Director, Common Ground, Shaftesbury, Dorset, England;

Hamish Fulton, Walking Artist,
Canterbury, England;

Lucy Lippard, Writer, Activist & Curator, Galisteo, New Mexico;

Ron Shuebrook, Past President,
Ontario College of Art & Design, Toronto, Canada.

Aug. 13, 2009 - 7 p.m. (Eastern Time)

Band/Music Room, Shead High School,
89 High Street, Eastport, Maine

WORKSHOPS

Learn the Basics of Parish Maps with Sue Clifford. Five workshops in different communities throughout the region will be offered during the week of Aug. 9-15

- Lubec: Aug. 9, 2 pm at Lubec Library
- Calais: Aug. 10, 7 pm at The Holmestead
- St. Andrews: Aug. 11, 7 pm at Kingsbrae Gardens
- Pembroke: Aug. 12, 1 pm at Pembroke Elementary
- Dennysville: Aug. 14, 7 pm at Lincoln Library

For additional information, please contact the Tides Institute & Museum of Art e: tides@tidesinstitute.org / p: 207.853.4047 / w: www.tidesinstitute.org

Support for the Parish Maps workshops and Public Art and Sense of Place panel discussion comes from the Tides Institute & Museum of Art with additional funding from the Maine Arts Commission.

Reduced copy of an original poster designed and printed by David Wolfe as part of the Hand Line Press series of posters produced by the Tides Institute & Museum of Art.

